President's Message / January 2026

Dear Color & Light Society Members,

As we move through the heart of the holiday season, I want to wish each of you joyous gatherings with family and friends, and a season filled with warmth, peace, and inspiration. May the new year bring you good health, well-being, and plenty of light to carry into your creative work.

I'm also honored to continue serving as President of the Color & Light Society, and I'm grateful for all you do to make this group so special.

A quick reminder: we will not hold our regular monthly meeting in January. Our next member meeting will take place in February. In the meantime, the Board will meet in January to begin planning and setting the course for a strong and engaging 2026.

Port of Leonardtown Show

DECEMBER AT THE WINERY

The Color & Light Society of Southern Maryland is proud to have a new show on view at the Port of Leonardtown Winery. Member artists Gail, Brandy, Linda, Denise, and Susan generously helped hang the exhibition, and the opening reception was held at the winery on December 5th.

The show looks fantastic and reflects the strength, range, and shared spirit of our group. It will remain on display through January 1st.

Please take a moment to stop by, enjoy the artwork, and help us celebrate this wonderful showcase of local talent. Your support means a great deal to our artists and to the continued growth of our community presence.

“With wine and hope,
anything is possible”

AN EVENING AT THE FENWICK INN

It was a wonderful evening at The Fenwick Inn Show on Friday, November 28th, held during the Tree Lighting Ceremony in Leonardtown. A special thank you to Donna O'Connor for generously hosting the show. We're grateful for her support, along with the warm hospitality of her family and staff.

Brandy, Linda T., and Susan were part of the show, and the turnout was excellent. Guests spent time enjoying the artwork, connecting with the artists, and watching Brandy's live watercolor demo. It was a great mix of holiday energy and genuine appreciation for local art, with many attendees purchasing pieces for themselves and to give as gifts.

The C&L Holiday Party

A FESTIVE LUNCHEON AT THE FENWICK INN

It was a wonderful holiday gathering at The Fenwick Inn on Wednesday, December 3rd. Donna once again generously hosted everyone at the Inn, and we're so grateful for her continued support and hospitality. The Inn was decorated beautifully, which added the perfect festive touch to the afternoon.

Members enjoyed a relaxed, cheerful time catching up, sharing conversations, and enjoying food provided by The Front Porch. Dick welcomed everyone in attendance, expressed his appreciation for everyone's hard work throughout the year, and announced the newly appointed board members: Brandy as Vice President and Cindy as Secretary. Dick will continue as President, and Linda T. will continue as Treasurer.

Special thanks to Linda S. for helping to organize the event and keep everything running smoothly. It was a warm, upbeat get-together and a great way to celebrate the season together.

“May your holidays sparkle with laughter and good friends.”

Creative Highlights

C&L MEMBER ART

As we welcome the new year, we're excited to share a fresh member gallery that captures the heart of Color & Light. This collection highlights artwork with a strong command of glow, shadow, contrast, and color harmony — the kind of pieces that feel alive the moment you see them.

There's a great mix of subjects and styles, but each work shows a clear confidence in how light shapes form and how color sets the mood. It's a beautiful reminder of the skill and creativity within our group, and a perfect way to start the year with inspiration.

We hope you enjoy exploring the gallery and celebrating this new season of art with us.
